Mangalore, Feb. 11

Provident Housing Ltd, a subsidiary of Puravankara Projects Ltd, will launch its residential apartment project in Mangalore.

Addressing presspersons here on Monday, V. Madhu, managing director of Provi-dent Housing Ltd, said the company's property - Provident Skyworth - will be situated atop a hill at Dereball Mangalore. Spread over 4.15 lakh sq ft, it will have 324 units.

A two-bedroom apartment of 1,091 sq ft is priced at Rs 39.22 lakh and a three-bedroom unit is priced at Rs 48.07 lakh. Based on the response to this project, the company may consider other projects in the city, he said.

To a query on the future projects of the company, Madhu said the company will soon launch a project in Coimbatore. In Bangalore, three more projects will come up.
