

Puravankara announces a unique theme based villa project in Bengaluru

“The Sound of Water”* inspired by the finest elements of a rainforest

Bengaluru, June 18, 2014: Puravankara Projects Ltd. a leading real estate company in India presents a unique theme based villa project on Bannerghatta Road called “The Sound of Water”. Inspired by the finest elements of a rainforest, and 35 feet high artificially created waterfall makes it one a unique residential project in the country.

The proximity of Bangalore Mysore Infrastructure Corridor (NICE) to ‘The Sound of Water’ helps easy access to Koramangala, Electronic City, Kanakapura Road and Mysore Road. This self-contained city coming up on sprawling 20 acres, has 209 villas ranging between 3009 sq.ft and 4723 sq.ft, with an approximate base price of Rs. 1.92 crores to Rs. 4.15 crores respectively.

The culture club houses facilities like a Yoga Court, Cricket practicing net, Squash and Tennis Court, Jamming & Karaoke Room, Tinkering Studio, Ballet Room etc. in addition to a barefoot stroll on the thoughtfully laid out walkway leads one to The Temple of Body and Mind with a magnificent Buddha statue. These along with a host of other features make The Sound of Water by Puravankara a unique Villa project in the country today.

Commenting on the launch Jackbastian K. Nazareth, Group CEO said, “There definitely is more to life than you think. We at Puravankara build homes that help you realise your dream; the dream of owning a home that not only gives you the comfort and warmth you crave for at the end of those long hours at work, but also the space, solitude and means you need to rediscover yourself. To top it, meticulous attention to the design & layout of every villa further creates a mood that perfectly complements the natural settings of The Sound of Water.

This hub of major IT/ ITEs companies has witnessed astounding influx of social infrastructure flanking renowned educational institutions, world class hospitals and entertainment centres, which makes “The Sound of Water’ a viable proposition both as an investment and a residential preference.
