"Puravankara in 2017-18 was all about focusing on #Homes4All."

I'm proud of the fact that we envisaged the potential of affordable housing and pioneered the business around the Provident brand, which completes 10 successful years in 2018, since our first launch.

I'm equally proud that we pivoted the luxury arm of our real estate focus on the broad shoulders of our Puravankara brand that has become synonymous with uber luxury residential real estate as well as work spaces.

Today, I'm happy to note that my team is relentlessly pursuing the future. We foresee that 'PropTech', the convergence of real estate and technology, will be the next disruptive wave and we're already leading the charge not only in our digital customer engagement initiatives, but also in our core construction and resource management efforts. Importantly, PropTech is emerging as a seamless fit with our vision of #Homes4All.

Going forward, Puravankara, as a group, will leverage impactful technology to meet the real challenges of providing housing for all. In doing so, I believe there is sustained value enhancement opportunity for all our stakeholders.

Provident's Park Square* in South Bengaluru is where the future is taking shape.

Comprising about 2,000 apartments spread over 19 towers of 16-storeys each, Provident Park Square is a unique instance of a mass-scale residential project being constructed deploying the modern precast methodology. The project has been designed by an in-house team, reflective of the growing build-up of the Company's own resource capabilities in key aspects of a project's framework. Provident Park Square is also the flagship project of Starworth Infrastructure, a subsidiary of Puravankara, awarded to it after a fierce tendering process with other big names in the EPC business.

For us, affordability is a function of technology, value engineering in design and leveraging our brand to achieve greater economies-of-scale. Provident Park Square is a model example of our endeavour in ensuring that the right product at the right price is accessible and within the reach of all. The project saw resounding success with over 650 apartments comprising 100% of the total phase-I inventory sold on Day One!

At Puravankara, we believe that the future is precast and we are energized by this construction technology that enables us to commit to our purpose of providing homes for all.

We sold an average of 8 flats every day in 2017-18. And the best part was that a growing percentage of these were digital media-driven sales!

It is no secret that social media is all-pervasive today and for brands like us, this represents an unprecedented opportunity to connect and meaningfully engage with potential customers.

Importantly, digital media enables us to reach out to and influence customers across the socio-economic spectrum and hence is an integral part of meeting our purpose of providing homes for all. Our digital media strategy is anchored on targeting our audience, building customer journeys and getting increased visibility towards the brand. Towards this extent, our social media strategies help us achieve these objectives.

We leverage Instagram, Twitter and Facebook by using them as a strong second-step in ads on social media. Our social media advertising strategy is based on being nuanced, topical and most importantly, relevant. The idea is to arouse the interest of our target audience and hence enable sustained attention build-up.

Being a tech-driven realty enterprise, we are actively appraising advanced technology, including artificial intelligence (AI), to enable higher conversions. This is done through ensuring improved customer enquiry management while also engaging with our potential customers better with superior project recommendations matching their search specifications and hence their needs and requirements.

From the
desk

Dear shareholders,

It is indeed a pleasure to be writing to you through this letter.

In this day and age of unprecedented change, time is of great essence and I truly thank you for your time in going through this report. While on the subject of time, we all agree that the world of today is very different from the world of yesterday and the world of tomorrow will be very different from what it is today.

On the broader macro-economic front, I believe we are living in exciting times with advances in technology and innovation driving globalisation and benefitting people the world over. This is good news as technology can be leveraged by anyone to their advantage. For instance, the world's largest cab-hailing service, even as it does not own a single vehicle, is pervasive by its presence around the globe. The model of co-habitation in hospitality has disrupted the traditional business, with technology allowing it to open doors of opportunity globally – and literally. On this point of disruption, co-working spaces, or collaborative offices, are also radically altering the concept of space utilisation with the first quarter of 2018 itself exceeding the annual tally of co-working space absorption in India in 2017. The emergence of cobots or collaborative robots is yet another megatrend that will see space and time being increasingly co-inhabited by humans and robots.

While technology is spreading its might across companies, regions, industries and sectors, it is also making steady inroads into real estate with the outcome that 'PropTech', representing real estate meshed with technology, has emerged as the new buzzword in our industry circles.

Being someone who has always remained close to technological developments, I have been an active technology advocate in enabling Puravankara to meet its overarching purpose of housing for all. The concept of an affordable housing arm was seeded almost 10 years ago. Extensive research and development and in-depth market analysis led to the birth of the Provident brand, much ahead of affordable housing becoming the centre-point of most real estate conversations today.

I have firmly believed that technology must disrupt to the point where a product or a service not only becomes more relevant but more affordable too. It is in the context of leveraging the latest in construction technology, including the breakthrough precast methodology, that we have actually shrunk handover timeframes; it is in the purview of smart planning that we have redefined space utilisation and it is in finding our sweet spot in managing the two – time and space – that we have been able to create a revolutionary housing solution that is both premium and affordable. In this landscape, I believe that our Provident Park Square project is a model of the future of residential real estate – aspirational, affordable, tech-centric and value-driven. With our focus on the conceptualisation of projects with such distinctive characteristics, I believe Provident will continue to enable us to respond to the nation's clarion call of providing 'Housing for All by 2022'.

While dwelling a bit on analysing the government's emphasis on housing, it is urbanisation, representing the overwhelming migration of people to urban spaces in search of better opportunities, that has been one of the major triggers in the development of residential and commercial realty. One of the unwanted impacts of this construction boom is the use of energy going up several-fold.

#ActualPhoto: The Tree by Provident

As a responsible developer anchoring our business on sustainability, we believe that green buildings bring forward the most effective solution to address the industry's environmental impact and we are committed to the principles of this developmental blueprint. Our emphasis is on integrating responsible technologies with traditional methods and in addition to precast, we have technologies such as 3D modelling and printing that allows for a sustainable path to building construction. Overall, we have put to use several sustainable concepts in the development of habitats that are one with the environment, while also constantly learning from progressive developments and implementing best practices across our project sites.

At Puravankara, we have always believed in being a consumer enterprise. We invest emotion and empathy in brick and mortar. We continually seek ways to make our customers' lives easier. We are passionate about finding solutions that bring positive space and time experiences and impacts.

In a landmark initiative, we are looking at making Puravankara homes intelligent and smart with the implementation of voice-enabled devices. With customers getting younger and much more familiar with technology, smart homes fit in well with our PropTech propositions while the product increasingly resonates with our customers' aspirations and lifestyles. I'm also proud to mention that we are among a handful of developers to allocate up to 3% of our project cost for software technologies that foster cost and time efficiencies and advantages across enterprise resource planning, project management and customer service.

Today, we bring forward our developmental expertise in an operating environment that is vibrant and opportunity-filled. Only recently, in a major thrust to the industry, the Reserve Bank of India increased the loan limits for banks and housing finance companies so that these financial institutions can meet their priority sector lending requirements. This regulatory guideline converges well with the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY) and is also ripe with the possibility of financial institutions increasing their disbursements under the priority sector lending category while borrowers getting a chance to avail loans at lower rates, which will boost the affordable housing segment. With a budget outlay of ₹ 645 bn for 2018-19, PMAY has emerged as a core driver of the industry and will continue to augur well for the real estate sector. Sustained regulatory impetus along with robust projected economic growth attributed to major reforms and fiscal measures will keep the excitement alive in India's real estate industry for years to come.

Overall, we are on our way to becoming a tech-oriented company in the consumer space, delivering quality housing solutions and vibrant work spaces for all. We are unique in the sense that we have a robust affordable housing play and also possess a well-entrenched luxury residential real estate brand that also provides quality work spaces. Put together, all our initiatives will help accelerate momentum and generate multi-decade value enhancement opportunities for our stakeholders.

Thank you for your continued trust, which I believe will take us to even greater heights in the future.

In conversation with the Managing Director

“For the fourth quarter of FY18, we doubled our sales to 1.2 msft vis-à-vis Q4 of FY17, which represents the highest level of sales achieved in the past 12 quarters. There is a clear build-up of momentum at Puravankara.”

Ashish R. Puravankara

What was the context of the operating environment and how did we perform in this backdrop?

The improving macro environment, RERA implementation, GST rollout and unfolding opportunities for collaborative development are ensuring reasonable buoyancy in the residential real estate sector today across many markets and micro-markets. Regions where effective demand is returning comprise the metropolitan areas of Bengaluru, Pune, Hyderabad and Kochi.

Puravankara's performance was encouraging in the context of these prevalent trends. For the fourth quarter of FY18, we doubled our sales to 1.2 msft vis-à-vis Q4 of FY17, which is highest level of sales achieved in the past 12 quarters. The launch of Provident Park Square in March 2018 is the start of a long list of planned launches across both our brands. Some of the key performance highlights of the year include:

- Ready-to-move inventory sales grew 78% from 0.79 msft in FY17 to 1.41 msft, which has materially eased our cash flows
- Overall sales grew substantially to 3.25 msft, representing a 50% surge over the previous fiscal year, leading to a sharp corresponding growth in sales value to ₹ 1,752 crores, as compared to ₹ 1,168 crores achieved in 2016-17

I must also mention that heading the reputed Bangalore chapter of CREDAI has helped me get an eagle-eye perspective on the real estate industry, enabling me to expand my understanding of the sector while also getting exposure to several learning opportunities on different business models, latest construction practices, finance, taxation and human resources, etc.

Was the Provident Park Square launch a reflection of demand slowly coming back to the market?

I've believed that demand always exists for quality projects that signify an economic and social value proposition anchored on a lifestyle upgrade aspiration. Provident Park Square is right at the junction of meeting this aspiration with the result that over 650 apartments were booked on Day One with waitlist applications being considered for allotment in future phases. This is our first project post RERA and I'm happy to note that we started the next chapter in real estate in such an encouraging way.

If we were to pick out the core highlight of 2017-18, what would it be?

Aligned with our purpose of providing '#Homes4All', I'm happy to mention that we made all-round progress during the year. One of the standout accomplishments was the fact that Provident achieved incremental sales booking of ₹ 514 crores during the year. This reflects over 195% of the sales booking attained by the brand in 2016-17 and indicates strong expansion in business momentum. Provident sold an average of 5 homes per working day in 2017-18. Today, Provident has become a force to reckon with in affordable housing and a validation of our scientific approach to analysing housing needs and providing a lifestyle solution that is both affordable and accessible. This shift has enabled us to ensure that Provident is indeed a growth engine as we expand our affordable housing business.

What was the strategic progress made on the other fronts in 2017-18?

Our growth framework is underpinned by the following:

- Geographic expansion
- Sales strategy
- Cost optimisation
- Systems and processes
- Financial controls

Let me take you through each of these.

Geographic expansion: We expanded our footprint in key West Indian cities with the result that today, we are present in the gateway markets of the South and West and, going forward, the bulk of our new launches will happen in these core markets that represent an infrastructure rejuvenation-led opportunity. An emphasis on geographically diversifying our project book and on Provident leading new launches will continue to guide our geographical expansion strategy.

Sales strategy: We transformed our sales strategy on two fronts. One, we redefined the sales architecture by

Our aim is to put a smile on the customer's face that represents the starting point of our stakeholder value creation journey. – Ashish R. Puravankara

In conversation with the Managing Director

segregating the teams engaged in the sales of ready-to-move inventory and newly-launched inventory. This was done to ensure an equal sales emphasis on both. And two, we rejigged our inventory management policy in favour of opening a larger percentage of apartments for sale during launch itself. With a slew of new launches topped by the fact that project sizes are getting bigger, our restructured sales strategy is primed to accelerate sales booking momentum across our project pipeline. The resultant de-risking of the business is an obvious and welcome outcome.

Cost optimisation: One of the key components of cost control was an emphasis on technology, specifically precast. In this context, Starworth Infrastructure, a subsidiary, has created unparalleled capabilities in technology to accelerate construction while applying quality rigour. It emerged as a force in the construction contracting business by winning the fiercely fought tender for Provident Park Square, which is 100% on precast, with other big names participating in the process. Our philosophy in cost management and value engineering has always been to cut costs and not corners.

Systems and processes: With the Company becoming larger with a widening project footprint, it was always a good idea to revisit and reinforce our processes and controls to ensure adherence and also provide an unobstructed organisational direction. We undertook enterprise-wide transformation by aligning remuneration with performance. We also segregated the marketing teams and processes for Puravankara and Provident with a view to sharpen focus and sustain undiluted emphasis for both the brands.

Financial controls: Our finance unit was re-purposed as a strong support function to reinforce resource allocation and optimisation, mobilise growth capital and facilitate appropriate financing solutions for projects. It has also helped the Company to align with new regulations under the GST and RERA frameworks and more proactively engage in treasury management.

What were the key developments on the tech front?

During 2017-18, we made significant investments in IT, bolstering our end-to-end project management capabilities by implementing a high-quality real estate software that, among other things, facilitates in building cost estimates, managing timelines and organising inventory for projects. As an aggressive proponent of technology, we are also planning the deployment of artificial intelligence that will enable analytics-driven customer management, revolutionizing their experience with us.

Coming to the point on social media, what is the emphasis on digital at the Company?

We believe that the future of real estate is in sales and marketing as technology will level the playing field in construction. Within sales and marketing, digital will be the way forward, as ratified by expert commentary. According to a BCG-Google report on digital spending, digital transactions in India could triple from around $40 bn to $100 bn by 2020, with digital advertising expected to clock a 30% CAGR to touch ₹ 12,046 crores by December 2018 (IAMAI and Kantar IMRB report). At our Company, our branding activities have had more of a digital skew even as we target younger consumers through leveraging social media influencers as well as allocating our inventory on online property marketplaces. We also launched a website under the URL: www.mypinkhomes.com. This site has been exclusively designed for our women home buyers and has attractive offers curated for them. In 2017-18, sales from digital channels comprised 17% of our offline sales even as digital spends rose to 26% of our total advertising budget of the year. This will go up in the future, aligned with the increasing trends in digital/online advertising.

While on the discussion on today's world, is it true that the spending power of the young generation is on the rise?

Absolutely and the real estate industry is an effective bellwether of this index. As per our assessment, the proportion of under-40 (years of age) buyers of our Provident projects has soared from 0.7% in 2013 to 54.8% in 2017. Over the last few years, the base of Provident buyers in the age bracket of 31-40 years has gone up significantly and this represents rising aspirations fuelled by increasing affluence. Taking 2013 as a base year, there has been an increase of almost 42% in buyers in the 31-40 age bracket in the year 2017, from being less than 1% of the total buyers. On the other hand, in the 41-50 bracket, there has been a sharp decline from almost 100% (in 2013) to 28% in 2017. Also, there has been a steady rise in the age group of 20-30 from almost 0% to 13% from 2013 till 2017.

Under our Puravankara brand, there is an almost unchanged shift in buying patterns within different age groups, indicating our luxury housing proposition continues to enjoy relative stability under the patronage of connoisseurs.

Provident buyer profile

Age bracket (years)	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017

What are the post RERA opportunities that the business is witnessing?

We've always sought to more closely mesh our business model with meeting the aspirations of our customers, their stated needs as well as their unarticulated desires. In this quest, we have always embraced a scientific approach to analysing needs and eventually empowering our customers with a product that evolves with their lifestyle and is delivered on time with high levels of governance and fiscal prudence. Towards this extent, I'm proud that our model was aligned with the various postulates of RERA before the Act was implemented. Post RERA, we are witnessing significant vaults of opportunity in the joint development model as landowners/other developers look to forge associations with larger and reputed players to thrive in the new era.

What's exciting at Puravankara today?

Housing for all is an energizing emphasis, evident in the record-breaking response we received for Provident Park Square. Standing on the threshold of an exciting today, we have a healthy pipeline of multiple deals. Over the next five years, we foresee having a portfolio of about 5-7 msft, out of which a projected 2-3 msft will be office space, in opportunity-filled micro-markets that will open-up a strong source of annuity income. Moreover, land being our principal resource, we are constantly forging and appraising joint developments, which have opened-up post RERA. We are also in the final stages of discussions with large funds currently operating in India to develop a platform transaction mainly for Provident to provide a sustainable growth impetus.

I'm also excited about the strong upward stimulus to our cash flows with the core drivers comprising the expansion in sales of ready-to-move-in inventory, strong pipeline of new launches and balance payments from nearing completion projects.

Finally, we believe that technology will play an integral part in real estate development and at Puravankara, we are looking to enrich our understanding of various modern technologies and processes to meet our central aim of providing housing for all.

Customer value creation

We want to help our customers make the most important decision of their lives of home ownership. We meet the high expectations of quality and timely deliveries that our customers have come to expect of us.

Customer expectations management strategies

Simplify real estate

Our aim is to ensure that real estate is accessible by all. We ensure that our documentation practices are clear and conflict-free and that we deliver as per our commitments.

Engage in smart and effective space planning

We are focused on providing our customers with a 'real estate surplus' and this philosophy encompasses smart space planning with relevant solutions. For instance, our projects of today have separate tuition space for children that takes such an activity outside of the house and into a common area. Better space planning also helps balance utilisation with utility – for example, some of our new projects have a Juliet balcony that takes up less space and also enables occupants to have airy rooms with open outside views.

Leverage technology for faster deliveries

We deploy technology with a view to adhere to delivery timelines with a constant endeavour to sustain customer trust.

Quality emphasis

We have created a 27-member dedicated quality team that is engaged in extensive QA/PE. Besides, we also appoint external auditors to check for inconsistencies and only after we have ticked all the boxes do we open handover. Besides, we also invite customers on pre-handover inspection visits. At our Group, we have also appointed a well-qualified German quality professional for stewarding our quality emphasis.

**QA/PE – Quality Assurance and Product Excellence*

#WhatYouSeels WhatYouGet

Customer experience centres in our project sites transparently display all the products used in the particular project with proper signage. For instance, the shelf showcases tiles, bathroom fittings, pipes, etc. A precast model is also installed for stronger customer awareness on the technology that is being used to build their homes.

Providing lifestyle solutions

We are attuned to the needs of our new-generation customers who want their homes to be an extension of their lifestyles. In addition to providing smart homes wired by intelligent devices, our projects have thematic propositions like those based on beachside living, Broadway themed, etc. For example, our Adora de Goa project (post balance sheet launch) is one that projects resort living by the bay with large resort-like pools, water bodies and water rides, representing overall an integrated resort district.

Digital engagement

We are transforming our commercial model because we are aware of the fact that our customers demand greater availability and proximity via digital channels, even as we strengthen the personal touch that has always been our hallmark. We are enriching and expanding the quality of our digital solutions by focusing on leveraging artificial intelligence and machine learning that will enhance customer engagement with our brands while also providing our consumers with a more contemporary and relevant purchase experience.

Community value creation

We ensure the integration of ethical, social and environmental criteria in the development of our business, contributing to economic and social prosperity in a responsible and sustainable way.

Our community value creation initiatives

Collaboration with Wockhardt Foundation

Puravankara collaborated with Wockhardt Foundation to run 3 edu-recreational centres in Ulsoor, Bengaluru, dedicated to children from marginalized communities. This association is an extension of our ongoing initiatives to leverage our expertise to create viable impact in communities. The unique programme, 'Khel Khel Mein', will engage with children in the age group of 6-12 years throughout the year to augment daily school learning.

Making our women home buyers feel special

Aligned with our commitment to our women home buyers, we launched an exclusive portal for them (www.mypinkhomes.com) on Women's Day. Through this portal, we provide our women home customers with exclusive offers and discounts, including the option of reserving an apartment by paying for just 1 sft.

Civic initiatives

After repeated complaints on waste dumped in medians under the Namma Metro tracks, Puravankara signed the first such license agreement with BMRCL in August 2017 to maintain 48 median sections on Magadi Road. Under the agreement, we are tasked with the responsibility of maintaining the garden/landscape of the selected medians for three years. This civic initiative dovetails with our commitment to ensure environmental sustainability across communities.

Biggest greeting card replica

With a view to acknowledge the country's emphasis and efforts in the housing industry as well as to capture consumer attention, a 2,853-ft greeting card replica was erected in Bengaluru that created a new Guinness World Record for being the biggest replica of a greeting card. The structure, created by Provident Housing, proudly bore "homes4all" in large signage and Independence Day greetings. The mega card was assembled in 250 hours and entered into the Guinness Book on 15 August 2017 that also celebrated Puravankara's 43rd Founders Day.

Promoting education among the underprivileged

The Puravankara Group supports Christel House Learning Center in Bengaluru, an institution for disadvantaged children, to grow, achieve and realize their dreams. The mission of Christel House is to help orphaned, abandoned and underprivileged children break the cycle of poverty and to make them self-sufficient and contributing members of the society.

Support to old-age home

The Little Sisters of the Poor, an international congregation, is dedicated to care for and serve the elderly poor. At Puravankara, we care about alleviating the suffering of the elderly poor and have been proud supporters in the past and will continue to extend our support in the future too.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The Management Discussion and Analysis Report, titled Management Report, forms a part of the Annual Report. It includes, among others, a discussion on:

2. Indian economy
3. Real estate industry in India
4. Puravankara – An overview
5. Awards and recognitions
6. Management's discussion of risks and concerns
7. Internal control systems and their adequacy

10. Financial review
11. Cautionary statement

1. Global economic overview

As per the World Bank and the IMF, the world economy has strengthened post the global financial crisis of 2008. Data also supports this. In 2017, global economic growth reached 3%, the highest growth rate since 2011. This growth is expected to remain steady for the coming year<sup>1</sup>. This stable recovery and growth is expected to continue for the next couple of years at least, before it plateaus post 2020. That said, the possibility of financial market stress, escalating trade protectionism and heightened geopolitical tensions continue to put a downward risk on the economic growth in the short-term.

Barring the recent moderation in growth in the US, advanced economies in the aggregate are expected to perform better. Emerging and developing countries will continue to perform unevenly across geographies. The gap between imports and exports for developing economies is expected to further widen in favour of imports, leading to higher deficits and debt levels. Average corporate debt in emerging markets and developing economies is increasing consistently. This may be associated with weak investment growth in select economies. The current growth prospects in developing economies provides their policymakers an opportunity to make fundamental structural and policy changes, to boost growth and equip their governments better. This presents an opportunity for India as well to create an enabling framework for enhancing growth to even higher levels.

2. Indian economy

India has emerged as the fastest growing major economy in the world, as per the Central Statistics Organisation (CSO) and International Monetary Fund (IMF) and it is expected to be one of the top-three economic powers of the world over the next 10-15 years. India's GDP is estimated to have increased 6.6% in 2017-18 and is expected to grow 7.3% in 2018-19<sup>2</sup>. The confidence in the positive outlook towards the Indian economy is reflected in the recent upgrade of Moody's rating, which is a significant achievement considering that the upgrade is coming after a gap of 14 years. Continued fiscal consolidation and economic reforms, such as the implementation of the GST that removed barriers to inter-state trade, are paving the way for strong and sustainable growth. However, challenges remain, including inflationary pressures, high fiscal deficit, rising crude oil prices and a rising non-performing asset portfolio in the banking system. Amidst these challenges, the Indian economy is on its path to become the third largest consumer economy in the world by 2025.<sup>3</sup>

Today, India continues to retain its top ranking of being the premier foreign direct investment destination. India has become the fastest growing investment region for foreign investors, led by an increase in investments in the real estate and infrastructure sectors, among others. It is envisaged to be the first point of reference for potential investors. The Government's 'Make-in-India' campaign has attracted investments across various sectors. This initiative is expected to increase the purchasing power of the common man, which would further boost demand, accelerate development and further enhance the inflow of foreign investments.

Highlights of the Indian economy

- India is the top-ranked economy in South Asia, 3rd among BRICS countries and ranks 40th in the Global Competitiveness Index on the back of improving infrastructure, higher education and labour market efficiency
- The country's economy has regained its momentum with the Central Statistical Office (CSO) reporting a GDP growth of 7.2% in the December quarter (Q3) of 2017-18—the fastest in five quarters
- Not only does this signal that the economy is tiding over the disruptions triggered by demonetisation and roll-out of the goods and services tax but the Q3 corporate earnings data also suggest that consumer demand too is on the revival mode
- India is expected to be a USD 6 trn economy, the third largest in the world, in the next 10 years, significantly helped by digitization (Morgan Stanley)

3. Real estate industry in India – Structure and developments

After agriculture, real estate is the single largest employer in India and is expected to contribute around 11% to India's GDP by 2020. The overall economic outlook towards the sector has been improving. Though demonetization in 2016 may have been viewed as a negative impact, it has only served to strengthen the sector. Since then, a plethora of incentives and policies, including credit-linked subsidy scheme, Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojna (PMAY), extension of income tax benefits and, especially, the implementation of the Real Estate Regulation Act (RERA) as well as the rollout of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) have helped the real estate sector immensely. The implementation of RERA, intended to enhance consumer confidence in buying under-construction property, has dramatically transformed the sector. The organized players are likely to benefit significantly as the sector is likely to undergo rapid consolidation. GST has improved the ease of doing business.

Demand for homes is increasing as confidence is returning to the residential real estate market. This is supported by an improved overall macroeconomic situation, leading to increase in disposable incomes, and this coupled with a rising middle income class and a growing number of nuclear families is driving demand for homes. With government support for affordable housing and reduction in home loan rates from those prevailing a few years ago, the residential market is witnessing a return of demand.

Sectors such as IT/ITeS, retail, consulting and e-commerce have registered high demand for office space in recent times. Office space demand in the country increased 23% YoY in January-March 2018 with absorption at 11.4 million sq. ft (msft) during the quarter. This drove a strong growth to 41.42 mn sqft of absorption in 2017-18. Office property is expected to remain in high demand with annuity-seeking investors, both domestic and international, increasingly acquiring/expanding real estate portfolios to hold office and retail assets.

Bengaluru, 'the Silicon Valley of India', is largely driven by end-user demand and has been at the forefront of not only South India's real estate market but also on a pan-India level. Half of Purvankara's sales comes from Bengaluru. Bengaluru's residential market is currently only second to the Mumbai Metropolitan Region (MMR) in terms of supply and absorption for Q1 of the 2018 calendar year stood at 8,842 homes and 12.80 mn sqft, which is on the back of 33,892 homes and 50.74 mn sqft absorption in FY18. Buyers who were in the wait-and-watch mode have now actively returned to the market on the back of an upsurge in sentiment resulting from the city's rapidly improving market fundamentals. The Bengaluru Metropolitan Region attracts investments from large technology companies and, combined with the growing number of start-ups, translates into a high number of white-collar workers migrating to the city. Bengaluru's pre-eminent position in office space absorption (11.96 mn sqft absorption in FY18 and 4.43 mn sqft absorption in Q1CY18) is testimony to the thriving start-up and technology-led ecosystem across the city. This, combined with the presence of excellent education and healthcare facilities and constantly improving physical infrastructure also contributed to an improvement in demand for homes.

The real estate demand trend in Bengaluru is similar to that in other major metros across the country in terms of size, viz. inclination towards smaller units. Smaller units with price tags within the budget of buyers are moving faster even in the luxury segment. Combined with the affordability factor, incentives such as CLSS and changes in social dynamics (such as the increasing trend of nuclear families) are driving this trend of smaller-sized/compact homes.

Products in the affordable and mid-segment category within Bengaluru are increasingly performing well. Post RERA, over the last one year, the Bengaluru Metropolitan Region has witnessed several successful new residential launches from developers. 2-BHK (typically 800-950 sft), 2½ BHK (typically 1,000-1,200 sft) and 3-BHK apartments (typically 1,250-1,450 sft) are being offered to suit end-users' requirements and budgets. Increasingly, compact homes/condos of smaller sizes – 1BHK (typically 450-600 sft) and 1½ BHK (typically 600-800 sft) are also being offered in Bengaluru as a part of a larger project.

4. Puravankara – An overview

The Puravankara Group, headquartered in Bengaluru, has gained over four decades of rich experience in property development, real estate and construction. It is among the largest developers in South India and serves the needs of a discerning clientele in housing, commercial and retail spaces.

The Group, through its principal promoter, began operations in Mumbai in 1975. Since then, it has established a considerable presence in the real estate industry in the metropolitan cities of Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Pune, Kochi, Chennai, Mumbai, Coimbatore and overseas in Colombo and Dubai with a focus on developing residential (comprising luxury and premium affordable housing projects) and commercial and retail projects. The Group's operations span all aspects of real estate development - from the identification and acquisition of land and obtaining approvals to the design, planning and execution and marketing of our projects. Today, we believe we have established a strong brand image and a successful track record in the Indian real estate industry due to our commitment to develop high-quality projects and products that meet the exacting standards of our customers. The residential homes we develop consist of apartment complexes, villas, townhouses, as well as affordable housing projects, which we develop through our wholly-owned subsidiary, Provident Housing Limited ('Provident'). Our commercial projects include retail and office premises as well as select IT parks.

A majority of our completed, ongoing and upcoming projects are situated in Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Pune, Mumbai, Kochi, Chennai, Kolkata, Coimbatore and Mangaluru. Our luxury and premium real estate projects are branded under the 'Purva' brand and our premium affordable housing projects under the 'Provident' brand. We believe that our brands give us a competitive advantage that allows us to achieve sales volume momentum and premium pricing and rentals. Our brands also help us secure land in prime locations and attract well-regarded professionals and partners to collaborate with us on our projects. In addition, after the completion of a project, we continue to focus on brand management through our after-sales team to ensure consistent brand recall among our customers and foster 'word-of-mouth' recommendations.

Provident, our affordable housing brand, seeks to create mid-income and mass housing projects comprising affordable homes in response to the increasing demand for value-for-money and affordable housing in India. Our projects in this segment are aimed largely at first-time home buyers. Provident develops projects that have small to medium unit sizes largely ranging from 500-1,200 sft but with a complete suite of amenities such as swimming pools, club houses and multipurpose halls. These projects are situated in the center of the city as well as in areas that are located relatively farther from the city's center but equipped with adequate infrastructure and supporting amenities and facilities, supported by public transportation connectivity and surrounding social infrastructure. We are able to provide these projects to our customers within a specified price range, which is more affordable than the housing we provide under the Puravankara brand, by reducing the size of our residential units and by applying innovative construction techniques and efficient designs that result in cost and time savings, without sacrificing the quality that the brand represents.

The Puravankara Group has the competencies and capabilities to capitalize on the market opportunity presented by affordable housing, including an experienced team and know-how, access to land at appropriate locations, decades of execution capabilities, the right branding and positioning strategies and a healthy balance sheet.

With a large and experienced team of engineers and technicians, the Group has a technologically advanced in-house project management and construction teams. This, coupled with access to some of India's leading architects, town planners and designers, provides the organisation with an experience, capability and expertise that is unmatched in the Indian real estate industry. Development activities range from concept creation, design and construction of modern homes through to ultra-modern and multi-functional integrated row houses, villas and bungalow complexes, plush yet functional commercial offices and IT parks as well as modern retail complexes. The Puravankara Group has also demonstrated capabilities in building large townships equipped with all modern amenities and lifestyle facilities to meet the growing requirements of its discerning customers.

6. Management's discussion of risks and concerns

Risk management is a structured approach to manage uncertainties in a challenging and rapidly evolving market like India, through the process of risk identification and management. In any business enterprise, risk management includes the methods and processes used by organisations to manage risks related to the achievement of their objectives. Risk management and mitigation typically involves the following processes:

- Identifying particular events or circumstances relevant to the organisation's objectives
- Assessing them in terms of magnitude of impact
- Implementing planned methods for mitigating risk impact
- Assigning clear responsibilities and accountability
- Direct reporting to the management
- Prioritizing risks with regard to the probabilities of their occurrence and magnitudes of their impact
- Monitoring the progress of risk mitigation and control activities to ensure identified objectives have been completed or are in progress

By identifying and proactively addressing risks and opportunities, business enterprises protect and create value for their stakeholders, including owners, employees, customers, capital providers, regulators and the society at large. Our organisation has appropriate/adequate internal control systems for business processes at all levels. The management has identified certain areas of risks to which the Company is susceptible. ## 9. Opportunities and threats

India's real estate ecosystem is undergoing a transformation. The Group has over time not only adapted itself to the new rules of the game but has also been proactive in anticipating emerging trends. RERA will polarize demand towards organized and established developers with healthy balance sheets and strong execution capabilities. The long-term benefits far outweigh any short-term challenges, which the Group is well-positioned and adequately capitalised to address.

Robust economic fundamentals and a steady interest rate regime, combined with regulatory reforms - both at the national as well as sector level have presented a never-before-opportunity in the real estate market. The momentum has shifted towards value-for-money homes in housing and annuity projects in work spaces, driven by a favourable demand-supply ecosystem and a benign interest rate environment. On the one hand, there exists a demand-supply mismatch in affordable housing with interest subsidies and incentives boosting affordability. In this context, the Puravankara Group is well-positioned, largely through Provident. There is a marked shift from the demand for high-cost lifestyle apartments to medium-cost value-for-money affordable housing. The Group had recognised this trend quite early and has been one of the pioneers to move in this direction to cater to the demand in this segment. On the other hand, demand for office space in the top 6-7 cities has been very strong, despite uncertainty from both global developments led by Brexit and the US elections, as well as slowdown in IT/ITeS spending, especially by Europe. Our Company is also developing its office space portfolio in Puravankara to align with the demand scenario.

Improved capital allocation, good governance and better execution, combined with prudent and careful new project selection will be some of the key factors that will differentiate the reputable organized players. Capital availability at low rates and flexible terms would remain a competitive advantage. Short-term challenges in the implementation of RERA and GST cannot be ruled out, but in the medium-term and long-term, both these reforms are expected to propel the sector and benefit established and reputed developers by polarizing both customer demand as well as the availability of capital towards them.

This is primarily due to the increase in our revenue from operations. ### Net profit for the period

Net profit decreased to ₹91.16 crores in fiscal 2018 by ₹37.76 crores or 29.29 percent, from ₹128.93 crores in fiscal 2017.

Reserves and surplus

Reserves and surplus increased to ₹2,274.59 crores as of March 31, 2018, from ₹2,247.66 crores as at March 31, 2017, mainly due to an improved performance at the consolidated level.

Total borrowings

Dividend

Liquidity and capital resources

As of March 31, 2018, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of ₹132.31 crores. Cash and bank balances primarily consist of cash in hand, fixed deposits with an initial maturity of less than 12 months and balances with banks. Our primary liquidity requirements have been to finance land purchases, deposits for joint development agreements and working capital for the development of our projects. We expect to meet our working capital and liquidity requirements for the year till March 31, 2019, primarily from the cash flows from our business operations and, if required, project-specific construction finance borrowings from banks and financial institutions, as may be expedient.

Our growth plans will require us to incur substantial additional expenditure in the current and future fiscals across our existing and new business lines. We expect that our acquisitions as well as the construction and development costs for our projects will be funded through a combination of internal cash flows and external capital. Our expansion plans and planned expenditure are subject to change based on various factors such as interest rates, property prices and market conditions. Our ability to raise and service the required financing depends on these factors as well.

Outlook

There have been changes in applicable regulations with regard to accounting standards. With effect from April 1, 2018, IND-AS 115 would apply to the Company. Accordingly, the Company would be required to present its financial statements based on the completed contract method as against the current policy of recognising the revenue based on percentage of completion method. The same is also applicable to the ongoing projects and the Company would have to de-recognise the revenue already recognised in respect of such ongoing projects, which will be again recognised upon completion of the ongoing projects. This may have significant impact on revenues, profitability and networth of the Company in the near-term, though in the long-term, the same would be neutralised.

Credit rating

Credit rating agency ICRA has enhanced the long-term debt rating at 'BBB+' for credit facilities availed by the Company. The outlook on the long-term rating is positive. The reaffirmation in the rating reflects improvement in the Group's debt coverage indicators and comparative reduction in its average interest costs.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

1. Corporate information

The consolidated Ind AS financial statements comprise financial statements of Puravankara Limited ('PL' or the 'Company' or the 'Holding Company') and its subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates (collectively, the Group) for the year ended March 31, 2018. The Holding Company is a public company domiciled in India and is incorporated on June 3, 1986 under the provisions of the Companies Act applicable in India. The Company's shares are listed on two recognized stock exchanges in India namely National Stock Exchange of India Limited and BSE Limited. The registered office is located at 130/1, Ulsoor Road, Bengaluru 560042, India.

The Group is engaged in the business of real estate development.

The consolidated Ind AS financial statements were authorised for issue in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors on May 11, 2018.

2. Significant accounting policies

2.1.1 Basis of preparation

In accordance with the notification issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, the Group has adopted Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act, read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended. The consolidated financial statements of the Group are prepared and presented in accordance with Ind AS.

The consolidated Ind AS financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

2.1.2 Basis of consolidation

i. Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the relevant activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group and are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

Consolidation procedure:

- a. Combine like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the Holding Company with those of its subsidiaries. For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognised in the consolidated financial statements at the acquisition date.
- b. Offset (eliminate) the carrying amount of the Holding Company's investment in each subsidiary and the Holding Company's portion of equity of each subsidiary. The manner of accounting for any related goodwill is explained below.
- c. Eliminate in full intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the group (profits or losses resulting from intragroup transactions that are recognised in assets, such as inventory and fixed assets, are eliminated in full). Intragroup losses may indicate an impairment that requires recognition in the consolidated financial statements. Ind AS12 Income Taxes applies to temporary differences that arise from the elimination of profits and losses resulting from intragroup transactions.
- d. The financial statements of all subsidiaries used for the purpose of consolidation are drawn up to same reporting date as that of the Holding Company, i.e., year ended on March 31st and are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances.
- e. Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of profit and loss, consolidated statement of changes in equity and balance sheet respectively.
- f. Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the amount recognised for non-controlling interests, and any previous interest held, over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the fair value of the net assets acquired is in excess of the aggregate consideration transferred, the Group re-assesses whether it has correctly identified all of the assets acquired and all of the liabilities assumed and reviews the procedures used to measure the amounts to be recognised at the acquisition date. If the reassessment still results in an excess of the fair value of net assets acquired over the aggregate consideration transferred, then the gain is recognised in OCI and accumulated in equity as capital reserve. However, if there is no clear evidence of bargain purchase, the entity recognises the gain directly in equity as capital reserve, without routing the same through OCI. After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses and tested for impairment annually.

When the Group ceases to consolidate for an investment because of a loss of control, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for and reclassified to profit or loss.

2.2 Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the consideration transferred measured at acquisition date fair value and the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their acquisition date fair values. For this purpose, the liabilities assumed include contingent liabilities representing present obligation and they are measured at their acquisition fair values irrespective of the fact that outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is not probable. However, the following assets and liabilities acquired in a business combination are measured at the basis indicated below:

- Deferred tax assets or liabilities, and the assets or liabilities related to employee benefit arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with Ind AS 12 Income Tax and Ind AS 19 Employee Benefits respectively.
- Liabilities or equity instruments related to share based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share – based payments arrangements of the Group entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with Ind AS 102 Share-based Payments at the acquisition date.
- Assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with Ind AS 105 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations are measured in accordance with that standard.
- Reacquired rights are measured at a value determined on the basis of the remaining contractual term of the related contract. Such valuation does not consider potential renewal of the reacquired right.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts by the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, any previously held equity interest is re-measured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss or OCI, as appropriate.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the amount recognised for non-controlling interests, and any previous interest held, over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the fair value of the net assets acquired is in excess of the aggregate consideration transferred, the Group re-assesses whether it has correctly identified all of the assets acquired and all of the liabilities assumed and reviews the procedures used to measure the amounts to be recognised at the acquisition date. If the reassessment still results in an excess of the fair value of net assets acquired over the aggregate consideration transferred, then the gain is recognised in OCI and accumulated in equity as capital reserve. However, if there is no clear evidence of bargain purchase, the entity recognises the gain directly in equity as capital reserve, without routing the same through OCI.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

(b) Joint ventures and associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies. The considerations made in determining whether significant influence or joint control are similar to those necessary to determine control over the subsidiaries.

A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint arrangement. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The Group's investments in its joint ventures and associates are accounted for using the equity method. Under the equity method, the investment in a joint venture or associate is initially recognised at cost. The carrying amount of the investment is adjusted to recognise changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associate since the acquisition date. Goodwill, if any, relating to the joint venture or associate is included in the carrying amount of the investment and is not tested for impairment individually.

The statement of profit and loss reflects the Group's share of the results of operations of the joint venture or associate. Any change in OCI of those investees is presented as part of the Group's OCI. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the joint venture or associate, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the statement of changes in equity. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and the joint venture or associate are eliminated to the extent of the interest in the joint venture or associate.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

If an entity's share of losses of a joint venture or associate equals or exceeds its interest in the joint venture or associate (which includes any long term interest that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the joint venture or associate), the entity discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the joint venture or associate. If the joint venture or associate subsequently reports profits, the entity resumes recognising its share of those profits only after its share of the profits equals the share of losses not recognised.

The aggregate of the Group's share of profit or loss of a joint venture or associate is shown on the face of the statement of profit and loss.

The financial statements of joint venture or associate used for the purpose of consolidation are drawn up to same reporting date as that of the Holding Company, i.e., year ended on March 31st and are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances.

After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognise an impairment loss on its investment in its joint venture or associate. At each reporting date, the Group determines whether there is objective evidence that the investment in the joint venture or associate is impaired. If there is such evidence, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the joint venture or associate and its carrying value, and then recognises the loss as 'Share of profit in joint venture or associate' in the statement of profit or loss.

Upon loss of significant influence over the joint venture or associate, the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the joint venture or associate upon loss of significant influence and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

(c) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities. The effect of change in an accounting estimate is recognized prospectively.

(d) Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

New and amended standards and interpretations

The Group applied for the first time the following amendment to Ind AS, which are effective for annual periods beginning on or after April 1, 2017. The nature and the impact of the amendment is described below:

Amendments to Ind AS 7 Statement of Cash Flows: Disclosure

The amendments require entities to provide disclosure of changes in their liabilities arising from financing activities, including both changes arising from cash flows and non-cash changes (such as foreign exchange gains or losses). The Group has provided the information for both the current and the comparative period in note 16.

(e) Current versus non-current classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification.

An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents. The Group has evaluated and considered its operating cycle as four years for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets/ liabilities are classified as non-current assets/ liabilities.

(f) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price.

Each part of an item of property, plant and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item is depreciated separately. This applies mainly to components for machinery. When significant parts of plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognized in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of property, plant and equipment is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses on existing property, plant and equipment, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit and loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to acquisition of property, plant and equipment which take substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are also included to the extent they relate to the period till such assets are ready to be put to use.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each balance sheet date is classified as capital advances under other non-current assets.

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognized is de-recognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the income statement when the Property, plant and equipment is de-recognized.

Expenditure directly relating to construction activity is capitalized. Indirect expenditure incurred during construction period is capitalized to the extent to which the expenditure is indirectly related to construction or is incidental thereto. Other indirect expenditure (including borrowing costs) incurred during the construction period which is neither related to the construction activity nor is incidental thereto is charged to the statement of profit and loss.

Costs of assets not ready for use at the balance sheet date are disclosed under capital work-in-progress. Capital work in progress is stated at cost, net of accumulated impairment loss, if any

(g) Depreciation on property, plant and equipment and investment property

Depreciation is calculated on straight line method using the following useful lives estimated by the management, which are equal to those prescribed under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, except certain categories of assets whose useful life is estimated by the management based on planned usage and technical evaluation thereon:

Category of Asset	Useful lives (in years)	Useful lives as per Schedule II (in years)
Buildings	60	60
Plant, machinery and equipments:
- Shuttering materials	7	15
- Other plant, machinery and equipments	10	15
Furniture and fixtures	10	10
Computer equipment
- Servers and networking equipments	6	6
- End user devices	3	3
Office equipment	5	5
Motor Vehicles	8	8

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

Leasehold improvements are amortised over the remaining period of lease or their estimated useful life (10 years), whichever is shorter on straight line basis.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment and investment property are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

(h) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Intangible assets comprising of computer software are amortized on a written down value basis over a period of six years, which is estimated by the management to be the useful life of the asset.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of amortization of intangible assets are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when asset is derecognized.

Costs of assets not ready for use at the balance sheet date are disclosed under intangible assets under development.

(i) Investment property

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

The cost includes the cost of replacing parts and borrowing costs for long-term construction projects if the recognition criteria are met. When significant parts of the investment property are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

Though the Group measures investment property using cost based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair values are determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer.

Investment properties are de-recognized either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognized in profit or loss in the period of de-recognition.

(j) Impairment

A. Financial assets

The Group assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The Group recognises lifetime expected losses for all contract assets and/or all trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

B. Non-financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining net selling price, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used.

Impairment losses are recognized in the statement of profit and loss. After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

(k) Leases

The determination of whether an arrangement is (or contains) a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at the inception of the lease. The arrangement is, or contains, a lease if fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets and the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset or assets, even if that right is not explicitly specified in an arrangement.

Where the Group is lessee

A lease is classified at the inception date as a finance lease or an operating lease. A lease that transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership to the Group is classified as a finance lease.

Finance leases are capitalised at the commencement of the lease at the inception date fair value of the leased property or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. Lease payments are apportioned between finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are recognised in finance costs in the statement of profit and loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalized in accordance with the Group's general policy on the borrowing costs.

A leased asset is depreciated over the useful life of the asset. However, if there is no reasonable certainty that the Group will obtain ownership by the end of the lease term, the asset is depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset and the lease term.

Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item, are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Where the Group is the lessor

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Assets subject to operating leases are included under Investment property.

Lease income from operating lease is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease including lease income on fair value of refundable security deposits, unless the lease agreement explicitly states that increase is on account of inflation. Costs, including depreciation, are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss. Initial direct costs such as legal costs, brokerage costs, etc. are recognized immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

(l) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized/inventorised as part of the cost of the respective asset. All other borrowing costs are charged to statement of profit and loss.

(m) Inventories

Direct expenditure relating to real estate activity is inventorised. Other expenditure (including borrowing costs) during construction period is inventorised to the extent the expenditure is directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Other expenditure (including borrowing costs) incurred during the construction period which is not directly attributable for bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use is charged to the statement of profit and loss. Direct and other expenditure is determined based on specific identification to the real estate activity.

- i. Work-in-progress: Represents cost incurred in respect of unsold area (including land) of the real estate development projects or cost incurred on projects where the revenue is yet to be recognized. Work-in-progress is valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.
- ii. Finished goods - Stock of Flats: Valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.
- iii. Raw materials, components and stores: Valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined based on FIFO basis.
- iv. Land stock: Valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(n) Land

Advances paid by the Group to the seller/intermediary toward outright purchase of land is recognised as land advance under other assets during the course of obtaining clear and marketable title, free from all encumbrances and transfer of legal title to the Group, whereupon it is transferred to land stock under inventories/capital work-in-progress.

Land/development rights received under joint development arrangements ('JDA') is measured at the fair value of the estimated construction service rendered to the land owner and the same is accounted on launch of the project. The amount of non-refundable deposit paid by the Group under JDA is recognised as land advance under other assets and on the launch of the project, the non-refundable amount is transferred as land cost to work-in-progress/capital work-in-progress. Further, the amount of refundable deposit paid by the Group under JDA is recognized as deposits under loans.

(o) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duties collected on behalf of the government.

The Group collects taxes such as sales tax/value added tax, luxury tax, entertainment tax, service tax, goods and services tax, etc on behalf of the Government and, therefore, these are not economic benefits flowing to the Group. Hence, they are excluded from the aforesaid revenue/income.

The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized:

Recognition of revenue from real estate development

Revenue from real estate projects is recognised when it is reasonably certain that the ultimate collection will be made and that there is buyers' commitment to make the complete payment. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized:

Revenue from real estate projects is recognized upon transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership of such real estate/property, as per the terms of the contracts entered into with buyers, which generally coincides with the firming of the sales contracts/agreements/other legally enforceable documents. Where the Group still has obligations to perform substantial acts even after the transfer of all significant risks and rewards, revenue in such cases is recognized by applying the percentage of completion method only if the following thresholds have been met:

- (a) all critical approvals necessary for the commencement of the project have been obtained;
- (b) the expenditure incurred on construction and development costs (excluding land cost) is not less than 25 % of the total estimated construction and development costs;
- (c) at least 25 % of the saleable project area is secured by contracts/agreements with buyers; and
- (d) at least 10 % of the contracts/agreements value are realised at the reporting date in respect of such contracts/agreements.

When the outcome of a real estate project can be estimated reliably and the conditions above are satisfied, project revenue and project costs associated with the real estate project should be recognised as revenue and expenses by reference to the stage of completion of the project activity at the reporting date arrived at with reference to the entire project costs incurred (including land costs). When it is probable that total project costs will exceed total eligible project revenues, the expected loss is recognised as an expense immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

Further, for projects executed through joint development arrangements not being a jointly controlled operation, wherein the land owner/possessor provides land and the Group undertakes to develop properties on such land and in lieu of land owner providing land, the Group has agreed to transfer certain percentage of constructed area or certain percentage of the revenue proceeds, the revenue from the development and transfer of constructed area/revenue sharing arrangement in exchange of such development rights/land is being accounted on gross basis on launch of the project.

The revenue is measured at the fair value of the land received, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents transferred. When the fair value of the land received cannot be measured reliably, the revenue is measured at the fair value of the estimated construction service rendered to the land owner, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents transferred. The fair value so estimated is considered as the cost of land in the computation of percentage of completion for the purpose of revenue recognition as discussed above.

Interest income

Interest income, including income arising from other financial instruments measured at amortised cost, is recognized using the effective interest rate method.

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognized when the Group's right to receive dividend is established, which is generally when shareholders approve the dividend.

(p) Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

The Group's consolidated Ind AS financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is also the Holding Company's functional currency. For each entity the Group determines the functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency.

Foreign currency transactions and balances

- i) Initial recognition - Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.
- ii) Conversion - Foreign currency monetary items are retranslated using the exchange rate prevailing at the reporting date. Non-monetary items, which are measured in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency, are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Non-monetary items, which are measured at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency, are translated using the exchange rate at the date when such value was determined.
- iii) Exchange differences - The Group accounts for exchange differences arising on translation/settlement of foreign currency monetary items as income or as expense in the period in which they arise.

(q) Retirement and other employee benefits

Retirement benefits in the form of state governed Employee Provident Fund, Employee State Insurance and Employee Pension Fund Schemes are defined contribution schemes (collectively the 'Schemes'). The Group has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the Schemes. The Group recognizes contribution payable to the Schemes as expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. The contribution paid in excess of amount due is recognized as an asset and the contribution due in excess of amount paid is recognized as a liability.

Gratuity, which is a defined benefit plan, is accrued based on an independent actuarial valuation, which is done based on project unit credit method as at the balance sheet date. The Group recognizes the net obligation of a defined benefit plan in its balance sheet as an asset or liability. Gains and losses through re-measurements of the net defined benefit liability/(asset) are recognized in other comprehensive income. In accordance with Ind AS, re-measurement gains and losses on defined benefit plans recognized in OCI are not to be subsequently reclassified to statement of profit and loss. As required under Ind AS compliant Schedule III, the Group recognizes re-measurement gains and losses on defined benefit plans (net of tax) to retained earnings.

The Group treats accumulated leave expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months, as long-term employee benefit for measurement purposes. Such long-term compensated absences are provided for based on the actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method, made at the end of each financial year. Actuarial gains/losses are immediately taken to the statement of profit and loss. The Group presents the accumulated leave liability as a current liability in the balance sheet, since it does not have an unconditional right to defer its settlement for twelve months after the reporting date.

(r) Income taxes

Income tax expense comprises current tax expense and the net change in the deferred tax asset or liability during the year.

Current and deferred tax are recognized in the statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

i. Current income tax

Current income tax for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities based on the taxable income for that period. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

ii. Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is recognised using the balance sheet approach, deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences at the balance sheet date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of the transaction.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilized.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

The Group offsets tax assets and liabilities if and only if it has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity) in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or in equity.

(s) Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Group does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses it in the financial statements, unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote.

(t) Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are recognized when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability, except for transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss which are immediately recognized in statement of profit and loss.

i. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

Financial assets are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if these financial assets are held within a business whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

ii. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets are measured at fair value through profit or loss unless it is measured at amortized cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income on initial recognition.

iii. Debt instruments at amortized cost

A 'debt instrument' is measured at the amortized cost if both the following conditions are met:

- a) The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and
- b) Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included in finance income in the profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognized in the profit or loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

iv. Equity investment in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates

Investment in subsidiaries and associate are carried at cost. Impairment recognized, if any, is reduced from the carrying value.

v. De-recognition of financial asset

The Group derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for de-recognition under Ind AS 109.

vi. Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, or as payables, as appropriate. The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts. The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, which is described below.

vii. Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term.

viii. Financial liabilities at amortized cost

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest ('EIR') method. Gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the EIR amortization process. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

ix. De-recognition of financial liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

x. Fair value of financial instruments

In determining the fair value of its financial instruments, the Group uses following hierarchy and assumptions that are based on market conditions and risks existing at each reporting date.

Fair value hierarchy:

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable
- Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

(u) Cash dividend to equity holders of the Holding Company

The Holding Company recognizes a liability to make cash distributions to equity holders of the Holding Company when the distribution is authorized and the distribution is no longer at the discretion of the Holding Company. Final dividends on shares are recorded as a liability on the date of approval by the shareholders and interim dividends are recorded as a liability on the date of declaration by the Holding Company's Board of Directors.

(v) Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Partly paid equity shares are treated as a fraction of an equity share to the extent that they are entitled to participate in dividends relative to a fully paid equity share during the reporting period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issue that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

(w) Cash and cash equivalents

The Group considers all highly liquid financial instruments, which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and having original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents consist of balances with banks which are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

For the purpose of the consolidated cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank borrowings repayable on demand as they are considered an integral part of the Group's cash management.

2.3 Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these judgments, assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management makes judgement, estimates and assumptions which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements.

The key judgements, estimates and assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The Group based its judgements, assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

Revenue recognition and valuation of unbilled revenue

The Group uses the percentage-of-completion method for recognition of revenue, accounting for unbilled revenue and contract cost thereon for its real estate and contractual projects. The percentage of completion is measured by reference to the stage of the projects and contracts determined based on the proportion of contract costs incurred for work performed to date bear to the estimated total contract costs. Use of the percentage-of-completion method requires the Group to estimate the efforts or costs expended to date as a proportion of the total efforts or costs to be expended. Significant assumptions are required in determining the stage of completion, the extent of the contract cost incurred, the estimated total contract revenue and contract cost and the recoverability of the contracts. These estimates are based on events existing at the end of each reporting date.

Accounting for revenue and land cost for projects executed through joint development arrangements ('JDA')

For projects executed through joint development arrangements, the revenue from the development and transfer of constructed area/ revenue sharing arrangement and the corresponding land/development rights received under JDA is measured at the fair value of the estimated construction service rendered to the land owner and the same is accounted on launch of the project. The fair value is estimated with reference to the terms of the JDA (whether revenue share or area share) and the related cost that is allocated to discharge the obligation of the Group under the JDA. Fair value of the construction is considered to be the representative fair value of the revenue transaction and land so obtained. Such assessment is carried out at the launch of the real estate project and is not reassessed at each reporting period. The Management is of the view that the fair value method and estimates are reflective of the current market condition.

Classification of property

The Group determines whether a property is classified as investment property or inventory as below.

Investment property comprises land and buildings (principally office and retail properties) that are not occupied substantially for use by, or in the operations of, the Group, nor for sale in the ordinary course of business, but are held primarily to earn rental income and capital appreciation. These buildings are substantially rented to tenants and not intended to be sold in the ordinary course of business.

Inventory comprises property that is held for sale in the ordinary course of business. Principally, this is residential and commercial property that the Group develops and intends to sell before or during the course of construction or upon completion of construction.

Estimation of net realizable value for inventory and land advance

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV).

NRV for completed inventory property is assessed by reference to market conditions and prices existing at the reporting date and is determined by the Group, based on comparable transactions identified by the Group for properties in the same geographical market serving the same real estate segment.

NRV in respect of inventory property under construction is assessed with reference to market prices at the reporting date for similar completed property, less estimated costs to complete construction and an estimate of the time value of money to the date of completion.

With respect to land inventory and land advance given, the net recoverable value is based on the present value of future cash flows, which depends on the estimate of, among other things, the likelihood that a project will be completed, the expected date of completion, the discount rate used and the estimation of sale prices and construction costs.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The fair value less costs of disposal calculation is based on available data from binding sales transactions, conducted at arm's length, for similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposing of the asset. The value in use calculation is based on a DCF model. The cash flows are derived from the budget for the next five years and do not include restructuring activities that the Group is not yet committed to or significant future investments that will enhance the asset's performance of the CGU being tested. The recoverable amount is sensitive to the discount rate used for the DCF model as well as the expected future cash-inflows and the growth rate used for extrapolation purposes. These estimates are most relevant to disclosure of fair value of investment property recorded by the Group.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

Defined benefit plans - Gratuity

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and other post-employment medical benefits and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

The parameter most subject to change is the discount rate. In determining the appropriate discount rate for plans operated in India, the management considers the interest rates of government bonds. The mortality rate is based on publicly available mortality tables. Those mortality tables tend to change only at interval in response to demographic changes. Future salary increases are based on expected future inflation rates and expected salary increase thereon.

Fair value measurement of financial instruments

When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using valuation techniques including the DCF model. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is required in establishing fair values. Judgements include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and market risk. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Measurement of financial instruments at amortized cost

Financial instrument are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest ('EIR') method. The computation of amortized cost is sensitive to the inputs to EIR including effective rate of interest, contractual cash flows and the expected life of the financial instrument. Changes in assumptions about these inputs could affect the reported value of financial instruments.

Basis of Consolidation

For the purpose of consolidation, judgements are involved in determining whether the Group has control over an investee entity by assessing the Group's exposure/rights to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and its ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee entity. The Group considers all facts and circumstances when assessing whether it controls an investee entity and reassess whether it controls an investee entity if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more elements of control. In assessing whether the Group has joint control over an investee the Group assesses whether decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control. Further, in assessing whether Group has significant influence over an investee, the Group assesses whether it has the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not in control or joint control of those policies. Changes in judgements about these inputs could affect the reported value in the financial statements.

Useful life and residual value of property, plant and equipment, investment property and intangible assets

The useful life and residual value of property, plant and equipment, investment property and intangible assets are determined based on evaluation made by the management of the expected usage of the asset, the physical wear and tear and technical or commercial obsolescence of the asset. Due to the judgements involved in such estimates the useful life and residual value are sensitive to the actual usage in future period.

Provision for litigations and contingencies

Provision for litigations and contingencies is determined based on evaluation made by the management of the present obligation arising from past events the settlement of which is expected to result in outflow of resources embodying economic benefits, which involves judgements around estimates the ultimate outcome of such past events and measurement of the obligation amount. Due to judgements involved in such estimation the provision is sensitive to the actual outcome in future periods.

Description of valuation techniques used and key inputs to valuation of investment properties

Valuation technique used	Significant unobservable Inputs	Range (weighted average)
		31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Discounted cash flow (DCF) method (refer below)	Estimated rental value per sq.ft. per month	45-55	39 - 40
	Rent growth p.a.	5.00%	5.00%
	Long-term vacancy rate	5.00%	5.00%
	Discount rate	13.27%	13.27%

Under the DCF method, fair value is estimated using assumptions regarding the benefits and liabilities of ownership over the asset's life including an exit or terminal value. This method involves the projection of a series of cash flows on a real property interest. To this projected cash flow series, a market-derived discount rate is applied to establish the present value of the income stream associated with the asset. The exit yield is normally separately determined and differs from the discount rate.

The duration of the cash flows and the specific timing of inflows and outflows are determined by events such as rent reviews, lease renewal and related re-letting, redevelopment, or refurbishment. The appropriate duration is typically driven by market behavior that is a characteristic of the class of real property. Periodic cash flow is typically estimated as gross income less vacancy, non-recoverable expenses, collection losses, lease incentives, maintenance cost, agent and commission costs and other operating and management expenses. The series of periodic net operating income, along with an estimate of the terminal value anticipated at the end of the projection period, is then discounted.

35 Financial instruments

The fair value of the financial assets and liabilities is determined as the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale.

The details of fair value measurement of Group's financial assets/liabilities are as below:

Particulars	Level	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Investment in unquoted debt instruments of joint venture	Level 3	69.99	61.86

Particulars	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Reconciliation of fair value
Opening balance	61.86	41.21
Investments	-	8.75
Fair value changes	8.13	9.23
Consolidation adjustments	-	2.67
Closing balance	69.99	61.86

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

- The quoted investments (mutual funds and bonds) are valued using the quoted market prices in active markets for identical investments.
- The fair values of the unquoted debt instruments have been estimated using a DCF model. The valuation requires management to make certain assumptions about the model inputs, including forecast cash flows, discount rate, credit risk and volatility. The probabilities of the various estimates within the range can be reasonably assessed and are used in management's estimate of fair value for these unquoted equity investments.

The fair value of the financial assets and liabilities is included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. There have been no transfers between levels during the period.

The Group's investments in its joint ventures and associates are accounted for using the equity method.

The management assessed that the carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, loans, trade payables, borrowings and other financial assets and liabilities (as listed below) approximate their fair values largely either due to their short-term maturities or because they are assets/liabilities carried at amortised cost and their amortised cost approximates their fair values.

Break up of financial assets carried at amortized cost	Notes	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Loans	7	326.10	264.00
Trade receivables	15	274.95	387.10

Break up of financial liabilities carried at amortized cost	Notes	31 March 2018	31 March 2017

36 Financial risk management

The Group's principal financial liabilities, comprise borrowings, trade payables and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance the Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include loans, trade receivables, cash and bank balances and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.

The Group's activities expose it to market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk.

The Group's management oversees the management of these risks and ensures that the Group's financial risk activities are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and that financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the Group's policies and risk objectives.

a. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss that may arise on outstanding financial instruments if a counterparty default on its obligations. Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and deposits with banks and financial institutions.

Notes to Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statements for the year ended 31 March 2018

Expected credit loss for trade receivables under simplified approach

The recoverability of trade receivables is assured as the registration of sold residential/commercial units is not processed till the time the Group does not receive the entire payment. Hence, as the Group does not have significant credit risk, it does not present the information related to ageing pattern. The Group has widespread customer base and no single customer accounted for 10% or more of revenue in any of the years indicated.

During the periods presented, the Group made no write-offs of trade receivables.

b. Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet obligations when due and also generating cash flow from operations.

Management monitors the Group's liquidity position and cash and cash equivalents on the basis of expected cash flows and maintaining debt financing plans.

The break-up of cash and cash equivalents and other current bank balances is as below:

Particulars	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Cash and cash equivalents	132.31	94.61
Bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents	0.16	0.12
	132.47	94.73

Maturities of financial liabilities

c. Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises two types of risk: interest rate risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk and commodity/real-estate risk.

The sensitivity analysis in the following sections relate to the position as at March 31, 2018 and March 31, 2017. The analysis excludes the impact of movements in market variables on the carrying values of gratuity and other post retirement obligations/provisions.

The below assumption has been made in calculating the sensitivity analysis:

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of an exposure will fluctuate because of changes in Interest rate. The entity's exposure to the risk of changes in Interest rates relates primarily to the entity's operating activities (when receivables or payables are subject to different interest rates) and the entity's net receivables or payables.

The Group is affected by the price volatility of certain commodities/real estate. Its operating activities require the ongoing development of real estate. The Group's management has developed and enacted a risk management strategy regarding commodity/real estate price risk and its mitigation. The Group is subject to the price risk variables, which are expected to vary in line with the prevailing market conditions.

Interest rate sensitivity

Profit or loss is sensitive to higher/lower interest expense from borrowings as a result of changes in interest rates. The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates, with all other variables held constant. The impact on the entity's profit before tax is due to changes in the fair value of financial assets and liabilities.

Particulars	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Interest rates – increase by 50 basis points (50 bps)	5.30	4.37
Interest rates – decrease by 50 basis points (50 bps)	(5.30)	(4.37)

Capital Management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to maximise returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, and maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Group monitors its capital using gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total equity. Net debt comprises long term borrowings, short term borrowings, current maturities of long term borrowings less cash and cash equivalents and other bank balances. Total equity comprises equity share capital and other equity.

Particulars	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Long term borrowings	137.99	303.15
Current maturities of long term borrowings and finance lease obligations	1,562.99	1,069.50
Short term borrowings	677.84	694.49
Less: Cash and cash equivalents	(132.31)	(94.61)
Less : Bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents	(0.16)	(0.12)
Net debt	2,246.35	1,972.41
Total equity	2,393.17	2,366.24
Gearing ratio	0.94	0.83

In order to achieve the objective of maximize shareholders value, the Groups's capital management, amongst other things, aims to ensure that it meets financial covenants attached to the interest-bearing borrowings that define capital structure requirements. Any significant breach in meeting the financial covenants would allow the bank to call borrowings. There have been no breaches in the financial covenants of above-mentioned interest-bearing borrowing.

No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital during the current and previous years.

43 Standards issued but not yet effective

Ind AS 115 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

On March 28, 2018, the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) has notified Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Ind AS 115 introduces a five-step model to revenue recognition:

Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer

Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract

Step 3: Determine the transaction price

Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract

Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

Under Ind AS 115, revenue is recognised when (or as) the Group satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service (i.e., an asset) to a customer (i.e., when (or as) the customer obtains control of that asset) at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer. The new revenue standard will supersede all current revenue recognition requirements under Ind AS. Either a full retrospective application or a modified retrospective application is required for accounting periods commencing on or after April 1, 2018.

The Group will adopt Ind AS 115 effective from April 1, 2018. As at the date of issuance of the Group's financial statements, the Group is in the process of evaluating the requirements of the said standard and the impact on its financial statements in the period of initial application.

Amendments to Ind AS 112 Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities: Clarification of the scope of disclosure requirements in Ind AS 112

The amendments clarify that the disclosure requirements in Ind AS 112, other than those in paragraphs B10–B16 of Ind AS 112, apply to an entity's interest in a subsidiary, a joint venture or an associate (or a portion of its interest in a joint venture or an associate) that is classified (or included in a disposal group that is classified) as held for sale.

These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2018. As at the date of issuance of the Group's financial statements, the Group is in the process of evaluating the requirements of the said standard and the impact on its financial statements in the period of initial application.

Amendments to Ind AS 12 Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets for Unrealised Losses

The amendments clarify that an entity needs to consider whether tax law restricts the sources of taxable profits against which it may make deductions on the reversal of that deductible temporary difference. Furthermore, the amendments provide guidance on how an entity should determine future taxable profits and explain the circumstances in which taxable profit may include the recovery of some assets for more than their carrying amount.

Entities are required to apply the amendments retrospectively. However, on initial application of the amendments, the change in the opening equity of the earliest comparative period may be recognised in opening retained earnings (or in another component of equity, as appropriate), without allocating the change between opening retained earnings and other components of equity. Entities applying this relief must disclose that fact.

These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2018. As at the date of issuance of the Group's financial statements, the Group is in the process of evaluating the requirements of the said standard and the impact on its financial statements in the period of initial application.

Transfers of Investment Property — Amendments to Ind AS 40

The amendments clarify when an entity should transfer property, including property under construction or development into, or out of investment property. The amendments state that a change in use occurs when the property meets, or ceases to meet, the definition of investment property and there is evidence of the change in use. A mere change in management's intentions for the use of a property does not provide evidence of a change in use.

Entities should apply the amendments prospectively to changes in use that occur on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies the amendments. An entity should reassess the classification of property held at that date and, if applicable, reclassify property to reflect the conditions that exist at that date. Retrospective application in accordance with Ind AS 8 is only permitted if it is possible without the use of hindsight.

The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2018. The Group will apply the amendments prospectively when they become effective and hence the Group does not expect any effect on its financial statements.

Appendix B to Ind AS 21 Foreign Currency Transactions and Advance Consideration

The Appendix clarifies that, in determining the spot exchange rate to use on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income (or part of it) on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to advance consideration, the date of the transaction is the date on which an entity initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, then the entity must determine the transaction date for each payment or receipt of advance consideration.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

Entities may apply the Appendix requirements on a fully retrospective basis. Alternatively, an entity may apply these requirements prospectively to all assets, expenses and income in its scope that are initially recognised on or after:

- The beginning of the reporting period in which the entity first applies the Appendix, or
- The beginning of a prior reporting period presented as comparative information in the financial statements of the reporting period in which the entity first applies the Appendix.

The Appendix is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2018. As the Group does not have advance consideration received in foreign currency, the Group does not expect any effect on its financial statements.

- 44 Till the year ended March 31, 2017, revenue from completed real estate projects was recognised upon transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership of real estate/property, as per the terms of the contracts entered into with buyers, which generally coincides with the execution of the sale agreement/deed. Effective year ended March 31, 2018, the Group has introduced the practice of executing allotment letters with buyers prior to execution of the sale agreement/deed. The Group, based on the legal opinion, is of the view that such allotment letters have the effect of transferring all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyer and are legally enforceable. Consequently, revenue from completed real estate projects is now recognised upon execution of the allotment letters entered into with the buyers. On account of the aforesaid change in the basis of revenue recognition, revenue from operations for the year ended March 31, 2018 is higher by ₹101.34 crores and the profit before tax for the year ended March 31, 2018 is higher by ₹32.28 crores.

1. Corporate information

Puravankara Limited (the 'Company') was incorporated on June 3, 1986 under the provisions of the Companies Act applicable in India ("Act"). The registered office is located at 130/1, Ulsoor Road, Bengaluru 560042, India. The Company's shares are listed on two recognized stock exchanges in India namely National Stock Exchange of India Limited and BSE Limited. The Company is engaged in the business of real estate development.

The standalone Ind AS financial statements were authorized for issue in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors on May 11, 2018.

2. Significant accounting policies

2.1 Basis of preparation

In accordance with the notification issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, the Company has adopted Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act, read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended. The standalone financial statements of the Company are prepared and presented in accordance with Ind AS.

The standalone financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

2.2 Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities. The effect of change in an accounting estimate is recognized prospectively.

(b) Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

New and amended standards and interpretations

The Company applied for the first time the following amendment to Ind AS, which are effective for annual periods beginning on or after April 1, 2017. The nature and the impact of the amendment is described below:

Amendments to Ind AS 7 Statement of Cash Flows: Disclosure

The amendments require entities to provide disclosure of changes in their liabilities arising from financing activities, including both changes arising from cash flows and non-cash changes (such as foreign exchange gains or losses). The Company has provided the information for both the current and the comparative period in note 15.

(c) Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification.

An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realized or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents. The Company has evaluated and considered its operating cycle as four years for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

Notes to Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements for the year ended 31 March 2018

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

Deferred tax assets/ liabilities are classified as non-current assets/ liabilities.

(d) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price.

Each part of an item of property, plant and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item is depreciated separately. This applies mainly to components for machinery. When significant parts of plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Company depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognized in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of property, plant and equipment is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses on existing property, plant and equipment, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit and loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to acquisition of property, plant and equipment which take substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are also included to the extent they relate to the period till such assets are ready to be put to use.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each balance sheet date is classified as capital advances under other non-current assets.

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognized is de-recognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the income statement when the property, plant and equipment is de-recognized.

Costs of assets not ready for use at the balance sheet date are disclosed under capital work-in-progress. Capital work-in-progress is stated at cost, net of accumulated impairment loss, if any.

(e) Depreciation on property, plant and equipment and investment property.

Depreciation is calculated on straight line method using the following useful lives estimated by the management, which are equal to those prescribed under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, except certain categories of assets whose useful life is estimated by the management based on planned usage and technical evaluation thereon:

Category of Asset	Useful lives (in years)	Useful lives as per Schedule II (in years)
Buildings	60	60
Plant, machinery and equipments:
- Shuttering materials	7	15
- Other plant, machinery and equipments	10	15
Furniture and fixtures	10	10
Computer equipment
- Servers and networking equipments	6	6
- End user devices	3	3
Office equipment	5	5
Motor Vehicles	8	8

Leasehold improvements are amortised over the remaining period of lease or their estimated useful life (10 years), whichever is shorter on straight line basis.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment and investment property are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

(f) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Intangible assets comprising of computer software are amortized using straight line method over a period of six years, which is estimated by the management to be the useful life of the asset.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

The residual values, useful lives and methods of amortization of intangible assets are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when asset is derecognized.

(g) Investment property

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

The cost includes the cost of replacing parts and borrowing costs for long-term construction projects if the recognition criteria are met. When significant parts of the investment property are required to be replaced at intervals, the Company depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

Though the Company measures investment property using cost based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair values are determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer.

Investment properties are de-recognized either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognized in profit or loss in the period of de-recognition.

(h) Impairment

A. Financial assets

The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The Company recognizes lifetime expected losses for all contract assets and/or all trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

B. Non-financial assets

The Company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining net selling price, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used.

Impairment losses are recognized in the statement of profit and loss. After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

(i) Leases

The determination of whether an arrangement is (or contains) a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at the inception of the lease. The arrangement is, or contains, a lease if fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets and the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset or assets, even if that right is not explicitly specified in an arrangement.

Where the Company is lessee

A lease is classified at the inception date as a finance lease or an operating lease. A lease that transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership to the Company is classified as a finance lease.

Finance leases are capitalised at the commencement of the lease at the inception date fair value of the leased property or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. Lease payments are apportioned between finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are recognised in finance costs in the statement of profit and loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalized in accordance with the Company's general policy on the borrowing costs.

A leased asset is depreciated over the useful life of the asset. However, if there is no reasonable certainty that the Company will obtain ownership by the end of the lease term, the asset is depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset and the lease term.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item, are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Where the Company is the lessor

Leases in which the Company does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Assets subject to operating leases are included under Investment property.

Lease income from operating lease is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease including lease income on fair value of refundable security deposits, unless the lease agreement explicitly states that increase is on account of inflation. Costs, including depreciation, are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss. Initial direct costs such as legal costs, brokerage costs, etc. are recognized immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

(j) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized/inventorised as part of the cost of the respective asset. All other borrowing costs are charged to statement of profit and loss.

(k) Inventories

Direct expenditure relating to real estate activity is inventorised. Other expenditure (including borrowing costs) during construction period is inventorised to the extent the expenditure is directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Other expenditure (including borrowing costs) incurred during the construction period which is not directly attributable for bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use is charged to the statement of profit and loss. Direct and other expenditure is determined based on specific identification to the real estate activity.

- i. Work-in-progress: Represents cost incurred in respect of unsold area (including land) of the real estate development projects or cost incurred on projects where the revenue is yet to be recognized. Work-in-progress is valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.
- ii. Finished goods - Stock of Flats: Valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.
- iii. Raw materials, components and stores: Valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined based on FIFO basis.
- iv. Land stock: Valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(l) Land

Advances paid by the Company to the seller/intermediary toward outright purchase of land is recognized as land advance under other assets during the course of obtaining clear and marketable title, free from all encumbrances and transfer of legal title to the Company, whereupon it is transferred to land stock under inventories/capital work-in-progress.

Land/development rights received under joint development arrangements ('JDA') is measured at the fair value of the estimated construction service rendered to the land owner and the same is accounted on launch of the project. The amount of non-refundable deposit paid by the Company under JDA is recognized as land advance under other assets and on the launch of the project, the non-refundable amount is transferred as land cost to work-in-progress/capital work-in-progress. Further, the amount of refundable deposit paid by the Company under JDA is recognized as deposits under loans.

(m) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duties collected on behalf of the government.

The Company collects taxes such as sales tax/value added tax, luxury tax, entertainment tax, service tax, goods and service tax etc. on behalf of the government and, therefore, these are not economic benefits flowing to the Company. Hence, they are excluded from the aforesaid revenue/income.

The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized:

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

Revenue from real estate projects is recognized when it is reasonably certain that the ultimate collection will be made and that there is buyers' commitment to make the complete payment. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized:

Revenue from real estate projects is recognized upon transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership of such real estate/ property, as per the terms of the contracts entered into with buyers, which generally coincides with the firming of the sales contracts/ agreements/ other legally enforceable documents. Where the Company still has obligations to perform substantial acts even after the transfer of all significant risks and rewards, revenue in such cases is recognized by applying the percentage of completion method only if the following thresholds have been met:

- (a) all critical approvals necessary for the commencement of the project have been obtained;
- (b) the expenditure incurred on construction and development costs (excluding land cost) is not less than 25% of the total estimated construction and development costs;
- (c) at least 25 % of the saleable project area is secured by contracts/agreements with buyers; and
- (d) at least 10 % of the contracts/agreements value are realized at the reporting date in respect of such contracts/agreements.

When the outcome of a real estate project can be estimated reliably and the conditions above are satisfied, project revenue and project costs associated with the real estate project should be recognized as revenue and expenses by reference to the stage of completion of the project activity at the reporting date arrived at with reference to the entire project costs incurred (including land costs). When it is probable that total project costs will exceed total eligible project revenues, the expected loss is recognised as an expense immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

Further, for projects executed through joint development arrangements not being jointly controlled operations, wherein the land owner/ possessor provides land and the Company undertakes to develop properties on such land and in lieu of land owner providing land, the Company has agreed to transfer certain percentage of constructed area or certain percentage of the revenue proceeds, the revenue from the development and transfer of constructed area/revenue sharing arrangement in exchange of such development rights/ land is being accounted on gross basis on launch of the project.

The revenue is measured at the fair value of the land received, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents transferred. When the fair value of the land received cannot be measured reliably, the revenue is measured at the fair value of the estimated construction service rendered to the land owner, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents transferred. The fair value so estimated is considered as the cost of land in the computation of percentage of completion for the purpose of revenue recognition as discussed above.

Interest income

Interest income, including income arising from other financial instruments measured at amortized cost, is recognized using the effective interest rate method.

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognized when the Company's right to receive dividend is established, which is generally when shareholders approve the dividend.

Share in profits/ losses of Limited Liability Partnership ("LLP") investments

The Company's share in profits from an LLP where the Company is a partner, is recognised as income in the statement of profit and loss as and when the right to receive its profit/ loss share is established by the Company in accordance with the terms of contract between the Company and the partnership entity.

(n) Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of the Company are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates ('the functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

Foreign currency transactions and balances

- i) Initial recognition - Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.
- ii) Conversion - Foreign currency monetary items are retranslated using the exchange rate prevailing at the reporting date. Non-monetary items, which are measured in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency, are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Non-monetary items, which are measured at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency, are translated using the exchange rate at the date when such value was determined.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

- iii) Exchange differences - The Company accounts for exchange differences arising on translation/ settlement of foreign currency monetary items as income or as expense in the period in which they arise.

(o) Retirement and other employee benefits

Retirement benefits in the form of state governed Employee Provident Fund and Employee State Insurance are defined contribution schemes (collectively the 'Schemes'). The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the Schemes. The Company recognizes contribution payable to the Schemes as expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. The contribution paid in excess of amount due is recognized as an asset and the contribution due in excess of amount paid is recognized as a liability.

Gratuity, which is a defined benefit plan, is accrued based on an independent actuarial valuation, which is done based on project unit credit method as at the balance sheet date. The Company recognizes the net obligation of a defined benefit plan in its balance sheet as an asset or liability. Gains and losses through re-measurements of the net defined benefit liability/ (asset) are recognized in other comprehensive income. In accordance with Ind AS, re-measurement gains and losses on defined benefit plans recognized in OCI are not to be subsequently reclassified to statement of profit and loss. As required under Ind AS compliant Schedule III, the Company recognizes re-measurement gains and losses on defined benefit plans (net of tax) to retained earnings.

The Company treats accumulated leave expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months, as long-term employee benefit for measurement purposes. Such long-term compensated absences are provided for based on the actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method, made at the end of each financial year. Actuarial gains/losses are immediately taken to the statement of profit and loss. The Company presents the accumulated leave liability as a current liability in the balance sheet, since it does not have an unconditional right to defer its settlement for twelve months after the reporting date.

(p) Income taxes

Income tax expense comprises current tax expense and the net change in the deferred tax asset or liability during the year.

Current and deferred tax are recognized in the statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

i. Current income tax

Current income tax for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities based on the taxable income for that period. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

ii. Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is recognized using the balance sheet approach, deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences at the balance sheet date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of the transaction.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilized.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity) in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or in equity.

(q) Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognized when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses it in the financial statements, unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote.

(r) Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value at initial recognition. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability, except for transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss which are immediately recognized in statement of profit and loss.

i. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

Financial assets are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if these financial assets are held within a business whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

ii. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets are measured at fair value through profit or loss unless it is measured at amortized cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income on initial recognition.

iii. Debt instruments at amortized cost

A 'debt instrument' is measured at the amortized cost if both the following conditions are met:

- a) The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and
- b) Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included in finance income in the profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognized in the profit or loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

iv. Investment in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates

Investment in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are carried at cost. Impairment recognized, if any, is reduced from the carrying value.

v. De-recognition of financial asset

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for de-recognition under Ind AS 109.

vi. Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, or as payables, as appropriate. The Company's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts. The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, which is described below.

vii. Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term.

viii. Financial liabilities at amortized cost

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest ('EIR') method. Gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the EIR amortization process. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

ix. De-recognition of financial liability

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

x. Fair value of financial instruments

In determining the fair value of its financial instruments, the Company uses following hierarchy and assumptions that are based on market conditions and risks existing at each reporting date.

Fair value hierarchy:

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable
- Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

(s) Cash dividend to equity holders of the Company

The Company recognizes a liability to make cash distributions to equity holders of the Company when the distribution is authorized and the distribution is no longer at the discretion of the Company. Final dividends on shares are recorded as a liability on the date of approval by the shareholders and interim dividends are recorded as a liability on the date of declaration by the Company's Board of Directors.

(t) Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Partly paid equity shares are treated as a fraction of an equity share to the extent that they are entitled to participate in dividends relative to a fully paid equity share during the reporting period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issue that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

(u) Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid financial instruments, which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and having original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents consist of balances with banks which are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

2.3 Significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these judgments, assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

In the process of applying the Company's accounting policies, management makes judgement, estimates and assumptions which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements.

The key judgements, estimates and assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The Company based its judgements, assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Company. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

Revenue recognition and valuation of unbilled revenue

The Company uses the percentage-of-completion method for recognition of revenue, accounting for unbilled revenue and contract cost thereon for its real estate and contractual projects. The percentage of completion is measured by reference to the stage of the projects and contracts determined based on the proportion of contract costs incurred for work performed to date bear to the estimated total contract costs. Use of the percentage-of-completion method requires the Company to estimate the efforts or costs expended to date as a proportion of the total efforts or costs to be expended. Significant assumptions are required in determining the stage of completion, the extent of the contract cost incurred, the estimated total contract revenue and contract cost and the recoverability of the contracts. These estimates are based on events existing at the end of each reporting date.

Accounting for revenue and land cost for projects executed through joint development arrangements ('JDA')

For projects executed through joint development arrangements, the revenue from the development and transfer of constructed area/ revenue sharing arrangement and the corresponding land/ development rights received under JDA is measured at the fair value of the estimated construction service rendered to the land owner and the same is accounted on launch of the project. The fair value is estimated with reference to the terms of the JDA (whether revenue share or area share) and the related cost that is allocated to discharge the obligation of the Company under the JDA. Fair value of the construction is considered to be the representative fair value of the revenue transaction and land so obtained. Such assessment is carried out at the launch of the real estate project and is not reassessed at each reporting period. The management is of the view that the fair value method and estimates are reflective of the current market condition.

Classification of property

The Company determines whether a property is classified as investment property or inventory as below.

Investment property comprises land and buildings (principally office and retail properties) that are not occupied substantially for use by, or in the operations of, the Company, nor for sale in the ordinary course of business, but are held primarily to earn rental income and capital appreciation. These building/s are substantially rented to tenants and not intended to be sold in the ordinary course of business.

Inventory comprises property that is held for sale in the ordinary course of business. Principally, this is residential and commercial property that the Company develops and intends to sell before or during the course of construction or upon completion of construction.

Estimation of net realizable value for inventory and land advance

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV).

NRV for completed inventory property is assessed by reference to market conditions and prices existing at the reporting date and is determined by the Company, based on comparable transactions identified by the Company for properties in the same geographical market serving the same real estate segment.

NRV in respect of inventory property under construction is assessed with reference to market prices at the reporting date for similar completed property, less estimated costs to complete construction and an estimate of the time value of money to the date of completion.

With respect to land inventory and land advance given, the net recoverable value is based on the present value of future cash flows, which depends on the estimate of, among other things, the likelihood that a project will be completed, the expected date of completion, the discount rate used and the estimation of sale prices and construction costs.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The fair value less costs of disposal calculation is based on available data from binding sales transactions, conducted at arm's length, for similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposing of the asset. The value in use calculation is based on a DCF model. The cash flows are derived from the budget for the next five years and do not include restructuring activities that the Company is not yet committed to or significant future investments that will enhance the asset's performance of the CGU being tested. The recoverable amount is sensitive to the discount rate used for the DCF model as well as the expected future cash-inflows and the growth rate used for extrapolation purposes. These estimates are most relevant to disclosure of fair value of investment property recorded by the Company.

Defined benefit plans - Gratuity

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and other post-employment medical benefits and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

The parameter most subject to change is the discount rate. In determining the appropriate discount rate for plans operated in India, the management considers the interest rates of government bonds. The mortality rate is based on publicly available mortality tables. Those mortality tables tend to change only at interval in response to demographic changes. Future salary increases are based on expected future inflation rates and expected salary increase thereon.

Fair value measurement of financial instruments

When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using valuation techniques including the DCF model. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgment is required in establishing fair values. Judgments include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and market risk. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Measurement of financial instruments at amortized cost

Financial instrument are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest ('EIR') method. The computation of amortized cost is sensitive to the inputs to EIR including effective rate of interest, contractual cash flows and the expected life of the financial instrument. Changes in assumptions about these inputs could affect the reported value of financial instruments.

Evaluation of control, joint control or significant influence by the Company over it's investee entities for disclosure:

Judgement is involved in determining whether the Company has control over an investee entity by assessing the Company's exposure/rights to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and its ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee entity. The Company considers all facts and circumstances when assessing whether it controls an investee entity and reassess whether it controls an investee entity if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more elements of control. In assessing whether the Company has joint control over an investee the Company assesses whether decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control. Further, in assessing whether Company has significant influence over an investee, the Company assesses whether it has the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not in control or joint control of those policies.

Useful life and residual value of property, plant and equipment, investment property and intangible assets

The useful life and residual value of property, plant and equipment, investment property and intangible assets are determined based on evaluation made by the management of the expected usage of the asset, the physical wear and tear and technical or commercial obsolescence of the asset. Due to the judgements involved in such estimates the useful life and residual value are sensitive to the actual usage in future period.

Provision for litigations and contingencies

Provision for litigations and contingencies is determined based on evaluation made by the management of the present obligation arising from past events the settlement of which is expected to result in outflow of resources embodying economic benefits, which involves judgements around estimates the ultimate outcome of such past events and measurement of the obligation amount. Due to judgements involved in such estimation the provision is sensitive to the actual outcome in future periods

Description of valuation techniques used and key inputs to valuation of investment properties

Valuation technique used	Significant inputs	Range (weighted average)
		31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Discounted cash flow (DCF) method (refer below)	Estimated rental value per sq.ft. per month (in ₹)	45-55	39 - 40
	Rent growth p.a.	5.00%	5.00%
	Long-term vacancy rate	5.00%	5.00%
	Discount rate	13.27%	13.27%

Under the DCF method, fair value is estimated using assumptions regarding the benefits and liabilities of ownership over the asset's life including an exit or terminal value. This method involves the projection of a series of cash flows on a real property interest. To this projected cash flow series, a market-derived discount rate is applied to establish the present value of the income stream associated with the asset. The exit yield is normally separately determined and differs from the discount rate.

The duration of the cash flows and the specific timing of inflows and outflows are determined by events such as rent reviews, lease renewal and related sub-leasing, redevelopment, or refurbishment. The appropriate duration is typically driven by market behavior that is a characteristic of the class of real property. Periodic cash flow is typically estimated as gross income less vacancy, non-recoverable expenses, collection losses, lease incentives, maintenance cost, agent and commission costs and other operating and management expenses. The series of periodic net operating income, along with an estimate of the terminal value anticipated at the end of the projection period, is then discounted.

33 Fair value measurements

The fair value of the financial assets and liabilities is determined as the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale.

The Company does not have financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value.

Investment in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are carried at cost.

The management assessed that the carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, loans, trade payables, borrowings and other financial assets and liabilities (as listed below) approximate their fair values largely either due to their short-term maturities or because they are assets/ liabilities carried at amortised cost and their amortised cost approximates their fair values.

34 Financial risk management

The Company's principal financial liabilities, comprise borrowings, trade payables and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance the Company's operations. The Company's principal financial assets include loans, trade receivables, cash and bank balances and other receivables that derive directly from its operations.

The Company's activities expose it to market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk.

The Company's management oversees the management of these risks and ensures that the Company's financial risk activities are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and that financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the Company's policies and risk objectives.

a. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss that may arise on outstanding financial instruments if a counterparty default on its obligations. Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and deposits with banks and financial institutions.

Credit risk management

Other financial assets like bank deposits and other receivables are mostly with banks and hence, the Company does not expect any credit risk with respect to these financial assets.

With respect to trade receivables/unbilled revenue, the Company has constituted teams to review the receivables on periodic basis and to take necessary mitigations, wherever required. The Company creates allowance for all unsecured receivables based on lifetime expected credit loss.

Expected credit loss for trade receivables under simplified approach

The recoverability of trade receivables is assured as the registration of sold residential/commercial units is not processed till the time the Company does not receive the entire payment. Hence, as the Company does not have significant credit risk, it does not present the information related to ageing pattern. The company has widespread customer base and no single customer accounted for 10% or more of revenue in any of the years indicated.

During the periods presented, the Company made no write-offs of trade receivables.

b. Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet obligations when due and also generating cash flow from operations.

Management monitors the Company's liquidity position and cash and cash equivalents on the basis of expected cash flows and maintaining debt financing plans.

The break-up of cash and cash equivalents and other current bank balances is as below:

Particulars	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Cash and cash equivalents	80.38	74.98
Bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents	0.16	0.12
	80.54	75.10

Maturities of financial liabilities

c. Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises two types of risk: interest rate risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk and commodity/real-estate risk.

The sensitivity analysis in the following sections relate to the position as at March 31, 2018 and March 31, 2017. The analysis excludes the impact of movements in market variables on the carrying values of gratuity and other post retirement obligations/provisions.

The below assumption has been made in calculating the sensitivity analysis:

The sensitivity of the relevant profit or loss item is the effect of the assumed changes in respective market risks. This is based on the financial assets and financial liabilities held at March 31, 2018 and March 31, 2017.

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of an exposure will fluctuate because of changes in interest rate. The entity's exposure to the risk of changes in Interest rates relates primarily to the entity's operating activities (when receivables or payables are subject to different interest rates) and the entity's net receivables or payables.

The Company is affected by the price volatility of certain commodities/real estate. Its operating activities require the ongoing development of real estate. The Company's management has developed and enacted a risk management strategy regarding commodity/real estate price risk and its mitigation. The Company is subject to the price risk variables, which are expected to vary in line with the prevailing market conditions.

Interest rate sensitivity

Profit or loss is sensitive to higher/lower interest expense from borrowings as a result of changes in interest rates. The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates, with all other variables held constant. The impact on the entity's profit before tax is due to changes in the fair value of financial assets and liabilities.

Particulars	31 March 2018	31 March 2017
Interest rates – increase by 50 basis points (50 bps)	3.33	3.07
Interest rates – decrease by 50 basis points (50 bps)	(3.33)	(3.07)

35 Capital Management

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to maximise returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, and maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Company monitors its capital using gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total equity. Net debt comprises long term borrowings, short term borrowings, current maturities of long term borrowings less cash and cash equivalents and other bank balances. Total equity comprises equity share capital and other equity.

In order to achieve the objective of maximize shareholders value, the Company's capital management, amongst other things, aims to ensure that it meets financial covenants attached to the interest-bearing borrowings that define capital structure requirements. Any significant breach in meeting the financial covenants would allow the bank to call borrowings. ## 40 Standards issued but not yet effective

Ind AS 115 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

On March 28, 2018, the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) has notified Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Ind AS 115 introduces a five-step model to revenue recognition:

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

Under Ind AS 115, revenue is recognised when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service (i.e., an asset) to a customer (i.e., when (or as) the customer obtains control of that asset) at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer. The new revenue standard will supersede all current revenue recognition requirements under Ind AS. Either a full retrospective application or a modified retrospective application is required for accounting periods commencing on or after April 1, 2018.

(All amounts in Indian ₹ crore, unless otherwise stated)

The Company will adopt Ind AS 115 effective from April 1, 2018. As at the date of issuance of the Company's financial statements, the Company is in the process of evaluating the requirements of the said standard and the impact on its financial statements in the period of initial application.

Amendments to Ind AS 112 Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities: Clarification of the scope of disclosure requirements in Ind AS 112

The amendments clarify that the disclosure requirements in Ind AS 112, other than those in paragraphs B10–B16 of Ind AS 112, apply to an entity's interest in a subsidiary, a joint venture or an associate (or a portion of its interest in a joint venture or an associate) that is classified (or included in a disposal group that is classified) as held for sale.

These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2018. As at the date of issuance of the Group's financial statements, the Group is in the process of evaluating the requirements of the said standard and the impact on its financial statements in the period of initial application.

Amendments to Ind AS 12 Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets for Unrealised Losses

The amendments clarify that an entity needs to consider whether tax law restricts the sources of taxable profits against which it may make deductions on the reversal of that deductible temporary difference. Furthermore, the amendments provide guidance on how an entity should determine future taxable profits and explain the circumstances in which taxable profit may include the recovery of some assets for more than their carrying amount.

Entities are required to apply the amendments retrospectively. However, on initial application of the amendments, the change in the opening equity of the earliest comparative period may be recognised in opening retained earnings (or in another component of equity, as appropriate), without allocating the change between opening retained earnings and other components of equity. Entities applying this relief must disclose that fact.

These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2018. As at the date of issuance of the Company's financial statements, the Company is in the process of evaluating the requirements of the said standard and the impact on its financial statements in the period of initial application.

Transfers of Investment Property — Amendments to Ind AS 40

The amendments clarify when an entity should transfer property, including property under construction or development into, or out of investment property. The amendments state that a change in use occurs when the property meets, or ceases to meet, the definition of investment property and there is evidence of the change in use. A mere change in management's intentions for the use of a property does not provide evidence of a change in use.

Entities should apply the amendments prospectively to changes in use that occur on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies the amendments. An entity should reassess the classification of property held at that date and, if applicable, reclassify property to reflect the conditions that exist at that date. Retrospective application in accordance with Ind AS 8 is only permitted if it is possible without the use of hindsight.

The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2018. The Company will apply the amendments prospectively when they become effective and hence the Company does not expect any effect on its financial statements.

Appendix B to Ind AS 21 Foreign Currency Transactions and Advance Consideration

The Appendix clarifies that, in determining the spot exchange rate to use on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income (or part of it) on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to advance consideration, the date of the transaction is the date on which an entity initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, then the entity must determine the transaction date for each payment or receipt of advance consideration.

Entities may apply the Appendix requirements on a fully retrospective basis. Alternatively, an entity may apply these requirements prospectively to all assets, expenses and income in its scope that are initially recognised on or after:

- (i) The beginning of the reporting period in which the entity first applies the Appendix, or
- (ii) The beginning of a prior reporting period presented as comparative information in the financial statements of the reporting period in which the entity first applies the Appendix.

The Appendix is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2018. As the Company does not have advance consideration received in foreign currency, the Company does not expect any effect on its financial statements.

- 43 Till the year ended March 31, 2017, revenue from completed real estate projects was recognised upon transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership of real estate/ property, as per the terms of the contracts entered into with buyers, which generally coincides with the execution of the sale agreement/deed. Effective year ended March 31, 2018, the Company has introduced the practice of executing allotment letters with buyers prior to execution of the sale agreement/deed. The Company, based on the legal opinion, is of the view that such allotment letters have the effect of transferring all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyer and are legally enforceable. Consequently, revenue from completed real estate projects is now recognised upon execution of the allotment letters entered into with the buyers. On account of the aforesaid change in the basis of revenue recognition, revenue from operations for the year ended March 31, 2018 is higher by ₹86.76 crores and the profit before tax for the year ended March 31, 2018 is higher by ₹28.40 crores.

44 Segmental information

The Company's business activities fall within a single reportable segment, i.e. real estate development. Hence, there are no additional disclosures to be provided under Ind-AS 108 - Segment information with respect to the single reportable segment, other than those already provided in the financial statements.

The Company is domiciled in India. The Company's revenue from operations from external customers relate to real estate development in India and all the non-current assets of the Company are located in India.
